BIG FREIGHT WRECK.

One Man Killed and Another Severely Wounded.

BOTH VICTIMS WERE BRAKEMEN.

It Required Three Hours Hard Work to Extricate the Dead Body from the Wreck—Natural Gas Pumping Station Blown Up—Prisoners Escape from Jail. Other Indiana State News.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Jan. 23.—Through freight train 98 of the Big Four, running between Riverside, O., and Indianapolis, broke in two while on the down grade just beyond Weisberg. The train consisted of an engine and 16 cars of merchandise. The first eight cars ran away from the other section and the latter, catching up, bumped into the others, derailing the train and piling cars in every direction.

Bent Colt and Edward L. King, both brakemen, were caught in the wreck, the latter instantly killed and the former severely injured. King lives near Sunman, Ind., and was once an engineer on the road. His body required three hours' search among the debris before it was recovered.

TOO MUCH PRESSURE.

Natural Gas Pumping Station Blown Up With Fatal Results.

REDKEY, Ind., Jan. 23.—Excessive pressure on the 12-inch natural gas main at the big pumping station of the Ohio and Indiana Pipe Line company, one mile south of here, caused it to give way, and the gas, pouring into the boiler room, caught fire and exploded. The building was wrecked and consumed, and the loss is estimated at $100,000.

Palmer Goodwin, one of the employees, was burned to death, and Joseph Watkins, chief engineer, of Lafayette, was so badly burned that his recovery is doubtful. Mr. Watkins is the father of Charles W. Watkins of Indianapolis. The pumping station supplied Piqua, Springfield, Dayton, Wapakoneta, Lima and other points in western Ohio with gas.

Fell Into a Snake Den.

LIGONIER, Ind., Jan. 23.—James Morgan, a tramp, while trying to escape arrest near Nappanee, ran into a marsh near that place, where he hid. All of a sudden the ground on which he was standing caved in for a space of about four feet around, and, to his surprise, he found that he was in a den of rattlesnakes. The snakes attacked him and by superhuman efforts he freed himself, but not until he was bitten so severely that death seems certain. He was immediately brought back to town, where medical aid was given.

Commander Walker Sustained.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 23.—Adjutant General Robbins of Commander-in-chief Walker's staff, announces that Buffalo, Cleveland and Philadelphia are the three cities that want the G. A. R. encampment if it is taken away from St. Paul. All the members of the executive council have telegraphed to headquarters here that they would stand by Commander-in-chief Walker, if the railroads refused to yield, and would vote to take the encampment away from St. Paul.

One Dollar Raised to Ten.

LOGANSFORT, Ind., Jan. 23.—George McFarland, a prosperous business man of Amboy, was tried before United States Commissioner George Funk for having in his possession and passing a $1 bill raised to $10. He was held to the United States court in bonds of $500. He claimed that the bill had been paid him by the cashier of Tully's Exchange, in Converse, but the cashier swore that the bill had never been in the bank's possession.

Queer Result of a Shock.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Jan. 23.—George Foster, engineer, employed by the Bauer Cooperage company, while experimenting with an electric light dynamo, received a shock which rendered him insensible. After partially recovering from the shock it developed that his mind was impaired, and physicians are doubtful of the result. Mr. Foster is a member of the city council, representing the Fourth ward.

Escaped From Jail.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Jan. 23.—While the sheriff and jailer and family were absent, no one being at home but the cook, Harry Madden, John Hess and John Lambert, under arrest for larceny, escaped. Sheriff Meek declares that the door was securely fastened, and the officers are of the opinion that they were let out by an accomplice, who knew the combination. The men are still at large.

Missing From Home.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Jan. 23.—William Buford, 60 years old, of this city, is missing. He left for the oil fields a few weeks ago with $500, and all efforts to locate him have since been of no avail. He owns real estate here.

Assaulted With a Pick.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Jan. 23.—Samuel Hoderick and Nelson Williams, quarrymen, engaged in a fight, in which Hoderick received several serious wounds on his skull and shoulders by a pick.

Fatally Burned.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Jan. 23.—Grace, 5-year-old daughter of John Boone, Jr., colored, was fatally burned yesterday.

SENATE AND HOUSE.
But Very Little Accomplished in Either Branch of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The senate session yesterday was marked by notable speeches and notable debates. Late in the afternoon a controversy occurred between Mr. Sherman, Mr. Gorman, Mr. Teller and others, which led to the most spirited financial debate that has occurred since the present congress convened. Mr. Sherman spoke at length and with great earnestness deprecating the thrusting of an "old worn out issue"—the silver question—into the senate at a time when practical legislation was imperative. Mr. Teller and Mr. Gorman answered Mr. Sherman from their respective standpoints, while Mr. Aldrich, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Gray and others took part in the exciting debate.

Mr. Wolcott's speech criticising the president's attitude on the Venezuelan question was the notable event of the early part of the day. For an hour the senator commanded the attention of a crowded chamber and overflowing galleries.

Two important reports were made by the committee on foreign affairs, one strongly presenting the serious condition of affairs in Turkey, and urging prompt action by the civilized powers, and an adverse report on Mr. Call's resolution calling for the official dispatches of United States consuls in Cuba.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—In the absence of any regular business in the house, the session was devoted to the consideration of minor matters and legislation by unanimous consent. The major portion of the day was consumed in the discussion of the senate resolution appropriating $25,000 for architectural aid in the preparation of plans for the Chicago public building. It was finally passed.

The house adopted the report of the elections committee in favor of Harry Miner of New York, in a contest brought for his seat by Timothy J. Campbell.

A joint resolution was adopted to extend the time for the completion of an incline railway on West mountain, Hot Springs reservation, Arkansas.

OUR NATIONAL BANKS.

The Comptroller of the Currency Reports Them in Splendid Condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The abstract from the reports made to the comptroller of the currency by the 3,706 national banks in the United States, showing their condition on Dec. 18, 1895, shows loans and discounts amounting to $2,020,961,792, against $2,059,408,402 on Sept. 28, 1895, the date of the last report. The gold coin held by the national banks on Dec. 13 last amounted to $113,843,400, against $110,378,360 Sept. 28. The gold treasury certificates on hand amounted to $20,938,080 as compared with $21,525,930 on Sept. 28. The gold-clearinghouse certificates aggregated $33,465,000, as compared with $31,021,000 at last report.

The silver treasury certificates amounted to $25,878,323, as compared with $22,914,180 in September. The total specie on hand on Dec. 13 was $266,712,410, as compared with $198,237,311 on Sept. 28. The legal tender notes on hand on Dec. 13 amounted to $99,269,423, as against $98,946,655 on Sept. 28. The United States certificates of deposit for legal tender notes on hand aggregated $31,440,000, as against $48,920,000 at the time of the September report.

The reports show that between Sept. 28, 1895, and Dec. 13, the national banks increased their individual deposits from $1,701,653,521 to $1,720,550,241.

Union Machinists Strike.

EASTON, Pa., Jan. 23.—One hundred and fifty union machinists, employed at Ingersoll & Sergeant Drill company's plant here, went on a strike at noon yesterday, because they were ordered to work on castings made by the non-union molders recently hired by the company to take the places of the regular molders who are now out on a strike. It is believed the strike will become general and that the entire plant will be shut down, throwing 500 men out of work.

Hurled to the Bottom of the Shaft.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 23.—While four employees of the Ohio Steel company were descending in an elevator cage at the company's plant yesterday, the wire cable broke, hurling the cage and men to the bottom. Charles Holemarsch was crushed to death, Andrew Clark and Steven Frido were fatally injured, and Patrick Nidle badly bruised. The injured men were conveyed to the hospital. All of the employees were Hungarians.

Value of Farm Animals.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The Orange Judd Farmer publishes the results of an exhaustive investigation relative to the number and value of farm animals throughout the United States. The total value of all classes is estimated at $1,864,420,000, or $62,139,000 less than a year ago. This is the lowest point yet reached since the decline began in 1898. The heavy decline in the past year has been chiefly in horses and mules.

Colonel William Duke Dead.

DANVILLE, Ky., Jan. 23.—Colonel William Duke, well known throughout the south, died yesterday afternoon at his home near this city. Colonel Duke was once one of the largest land owners in central Kentucky. He was a soldier in the Mexican war and a first cousin of Colonel Basil Duke of Morgan's Confederate raiders. He once fought a famous duel with General Roger Hanson

RED CROSS RELIEF.

It Will Be Extended to the Suffering Armenians.

MISS BARTON SAILS FOR TURKEY.

She Is Accompanied by Some of Her Staff Officers—A Short Interview Before She Embarked—No Definite Program Arranged—Dangerous For Americans to Travel in Turkey Just Now.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Miss Clara Barton and her staff members of the National Red Cross society sailed yesterday on the steamship New York. Those who accompanied Miss Barton were Dr. J. B. Hubbell, field agent; Miss Lucy Greaves, stenographer and typewriter; Ernest Mason, interpreter and linguist, and George H. Pullman, secretary to Miss Barton. In briefly discussing her plans, Miss Barton said:

"I can give you but five minutes. We expect to reach Constantinople within three weeks. This will allow for delay and transfer in London, Paris and Geneva. I have no definite plans as yet, but I shall make plans when I reach the field of operation. I was asked to do this work because they could not get any one else—I am the particular tool."

When asked a few specific questions, Miss Barton replied:

"I do not know the amount of the Armenian relief fund. We are going to feed the hungry and that is as far as we have laid our plans at present. I shall, upon arriving at Constantinople, endeavor to enlist the sympathy of the United States minister at that place. I do not yet know whether I shall make an effort to have an audience with the sublime porte himself, and I shall have only newspaper knowledge that the sublime porte has through the Turkish minister at Washington announced his opposition to the distribution of this relief fund."

Spencer Trask, who is an officer of the New York branch of the society, said: "It is the fault of the press that antagonism to the Red Cross society has been shown by the public and by the Turkish government. The Turkish government interdicted the Red Cross society by name. It has no reason to be opposed to the humane desires of the society, and it would not be if it was not that the press has antagonized it."

NOT SAFE TO TRAVEL.

American Tourists Compelled to Give Up Trips to Turkey.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Two hundred tourists who had booked to visit Turkey and the east on a special excursion aboard the French liner La Touraine, scheduled to sail from New York on Feb. 4, have been notified that the trip is off. The acute condition of affairs in Turkey and the uncertainty of affording adequate protection to travelers in the domain of the sultan caused the abandonment of the tour.

The pleasure trip of the steamship Friesland, which was scheduled to sail for the same territory on Jan. 29, was given up for the same reasons.

LAWMAKERS INDICTED.

Three Ex-Members of the Ohio Legislature Charged With Bribery.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23.—A bomb was exploded in political circles last night by the indictment of three ex-members of the legislature on the charges of bribery.

A true bill was found against ex-Senator John Geyer for soliciting $400 from W. F. Burdell of this city for his influence in securing the passage of a bill in the interest of the Ohio Savings Bank and Trust company in 1893.

A true bill was also found against ex-Senator Gear for soliciting $250 from D. H. Gaumer of Zanesville in the Iden-Gaumer election contest in 1892.

Three counts were found against ex-Senator L. C. Ohl, as follows: Soliciting $250 from ex-Senator George E. Iden in the Iden-Gaumer election contest; accepting $250 from Iden in same; and offering $250 to Iden for his election, 60. No choice. Populist Poor voted for Hunter.

PETER RELEYA DEAD.

He Was the Undertaker Who Had Charge of Lincoln's Funeral.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Peter Releya the undertaker who had charge of Abraham Lincoln's funeral died yesterday, at his home in this city. He was in his 81st year and since 1878 has conducted an undertaking business on Broadway. Death was due to old age.

The morning of April 21, 1865, one of the New York board of aldermen engaged him. The funeral car was to be ready four days later. He hesitated undertaking the work, but finally agreed and erected a temporary workshop in the square at the junction of East Broadway and Grand street, and from that moment on worked unceasingly, and the car to be drawn by the 16 horses was turned out on time. Sixty men and women were employed in the work, which cost the city about $6,000. He took charge of the body at Jersey City on its arrival from Washington and it remained in his charge while lying in state at the city hall.

During the Astor place riots in wartime Mr. Releya was a lieutenant in the president's guard, and during the draft riots served in a company of home guards. He was a member of the Masonic Veterans' association of New York, of Americus Lodge No. 535, F. and A. M., and its chaplain since its organization in 1863.

SENATOR WELLINGTON NOW.

Gibson Meets His Waterloo at Maryland's Capital.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 23.—The legislature in joint session ratified the action of the Republican caucus and elected Congressman George L. Wellington to succeed Charles H. Gibson as United States senator on March 4, 1897.

Of the Republicans, 17 refused to vote and one cast his ballot for Mr. Goldsborough. Eight Democrats also refused to abide by the caucus nomination of Senator John Walter Smith, the Gorman candidate, but voted for other candidates. The final ballot resulted as follows: George Wellington, 63; Philip Goldsborough, 1; John Walter Smith, Democrat, 23; John R. Pattison, Democrat, 7; J. E. Ellegood, Democrat, 1.

Mr. Wellington, upon being asked as to his course in the United States senate when he should succeed Senator Gibson, said: "I shall be the senator for the whole state of Maryland, and not for the eastern shore or the western shore. I am a Republican, of course, with firm convictions on national questions, a protectionist naturally, and a sound money man."

EULOGIZING EWING.

Action Taken by the Ohio Society in New York City.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The Ohio society held a special meeting last night to take action on the death of General Thomas Ewing, one of its charter members, who was run down and mortally injured by a cable car on Monday last and who died on Tuesday.

General Henry L. Burnett, president of the society, presided.

While the committee was preparing the resolution, several of the members delivered short addresses, reminiscing of their dead associate and eulogizing his many good qualities of mind and heart.

General Wager Swayne, Milton I. Southard, Professor S. S. Packard were selected to act as pallbearers for the society.

The burial will take place on Friday afternoon. The remains will be temporarily interred in Oakland cemetery. Funeral services will be held in the First Presbyterian church at Yonkers.

Kentucky Voting For Senator.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 23.—The two houses of the general assembly met in joint session at noon yesterday and proceeded to take a joint ballot for senator. The votes were as follows: Republicans—Hunter, 68; Wilson, 1. Democrats—Blackburn, 58; McCreary, 6; Carlisle, 2; Buckner, 1. Necessary to an election, 60. No choice. Populist Poor voted for Hunter.

A BIG UNDERTAKING.

The Spanish Soldiers in Cuba Trying to Capture General Gomez.

HAVANA, Jan. 23.—It is reported here that Maximo Gomez is suffering from an attack of illness.

The columns of General Cornell and Colonel Macon are at Jamaica, in Havana province, combining in a movement in pursuit of Gomez. Meantime General Aldecoa and General Linarez have stationed themselves at strategic points, and the Spanish authorities once more indulge the hope that they will bring Gomez to fight a pitched battle or drive him into a corner.

The machine houses on the plantations of San Jose, the cane fields of Rubi Lolas, several houses at Ranchuelo, Santa Clara, and the station and their houses in the village of Sabanillo, Matanzas, have also been burned.

It is reported that the insurgent leaders, Veda and Verona, have surrendered to the authorities in Manzanillo.

Wits Lost in the Crucible.

PIQUA, O., Jan. 23.—Thomas Randolph, aged 29 years, has become violently insane, which is accredited to his close application to books in the study of chemistry. On account of several times threatening the life of his sister's sweetheart and the other members of the family, he has been taken in custody, and his case will receive the proper attention at the hands of the probate judge. He is a graduate of pharmacy and a man of more than ordinary intelligence.

LEADBELL has used 15,000,000 pounds of congealed water in the construction of an ice palace which is said to be a record breaker in size and beauty. It is 450 feet long and 350 feet wide and is brilliantly lighted with electric lights of many hues. The palace has a mammoth rink, a ball room, a cafe and numerous other attractions.

TOBACCO buyers at Carlisle have made purchases at North Middletown as follows: Moore & Bishop, 24,000 pounds, at 11 and 2½ cents; Ben Skillman, 10,000 pounds, 8½ and 2 cents; Wilson Gillispie, 14,000 pounds, 9 cents; Reid & Gillispie, 8,000 pounds, 10½ and 2½ cents; R. It takes money to get honors these days if the figures given by the Harrodsburg Democrat are correct. It says two gentlemen were figuring on what it will cost the next fellow who goes to Congress from McCreary's district. To get the nomination $5,000, then to win the general election $1,000 must be placed in each of the eleven counties to which must be added $4,000 for incidentals, making $20,000.

A CORRESPONDENT at Millersburg writes the Kentucky-Citizen as follows: "Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Henry Phillips, of this place, and Miss Gene Milam, of Maysville. She was educated here and afterwards taught music in the college. She has spent the greater part of her life in this community and we will cordially welcome her as one of us. Maysville will only exchange, for in a few days one of our pretty girls will wed and go there to live."

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

Erysipelas

Has been my affliction from childhood. It was caused by impure blood and every spring I was sure to have a long spell and my general health would give way. Doctors did me but little good and I became despondent. Last spring erysipelas settled in my eyes and I became totally blind for several weeks. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and after taking one bottle my sight gradually returned, my blood became purified and I was restored to good health. DEATH OF W. S. CALVERT.

One of the County's Old and Esteemed Citizens Passes Away at His Home Near Lewisburg.

Mr. W. S. Calvert, one of the old and esteemed citizens of Mason County, died Wednesday at 10 a. m. at his home near Lewisburg. He was stricken with paralysis a year or so ago, and had been declining ever since.

The funeral will occur to-morrow at 10 a. m. at the Lewisburg Baptist Church. Burial in the cemetery at that place.

Deceased was seventy-three years old the 30th of last October, and was a son of Captain Tom Calvert. His father was one of four brothers who came to Mason County from Maryland nearly one hundred years ago. His wife who was a Miss Evans survives, with five children—Messrs. A. H. and Pearce Calvert of this county, Mrs. Archie Piper, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Dr. Weaver and Mrs. C. W. Meng, of North Middletown, Bourbon County.

Oil Strike in Pike County.

ASHLAND, KY., Jan. 20.—(Special)—Reports received from the oil fields of the Big Sandy Valley State that the South Pennsylvania Oil Company finished a well the past week on Hurricane Creek in Pike County, securing at a depth of 1,600 feet a gas pressure of forty pounds and a flow of oil that will not exceed at present five barrels a day. The well will be shot soon. The Corning Oil Company, of Columbus, O., has begun the boring of a well on Middle Creek, a short distance from Prestonsburg, but has reached only a depth of 600 feet. Pratt, Cooper & Co., of Pittsburgh, are placing a well on the upper fork of Beaver, above Salt Lick, but have not more than half the required depth as yet. Both these wells are expected to be finished early in February. No other operations are on now.

It Came Hard.

In France, as in most other countries, it is necessary to give one's age when making a statement in a court of justice, as well as in many other official proceedings. But Frenchwomen of mature years are noted above all other women for their unwillingness to state their age. On one occasion a lady who had to testify was accompanied to the court by a numerous company of her friends, and when the magistrate asked, "How old are you?" there was such a coughing and clearing of throats, as of people suffering from severe colds, that all that could be heard in the courtroom was "—ty years!"

Through the amiability of the magistrate, this more than half suppressed response was allowed to stand, but the tribunals are not always so lenient. On another occasion a magistrate asked a woman:

"What is your age, madam?"

"Whatever you choose, sir," answered the lady. She was under oath.

"You may put down 45 years, then," said the magistrate to the clerk. "What is your occupation, madam?"

"Sir," said the witness, "you have made a mistake of ten years in my age."

"Put down 55 years, then," said the magistrate. "Your residence?"

"Sir," exclaimed the lady, "my age is 85 years, not 55!"

"At last we have your statement," said the magistrate, and he proceeded with the examination.—Youth's Companion.

An Attentive Gallant.

Among the audience at one of the popular theaters were a young man and a young woman who appeared to be either newly married or on the verge of it. The young man was as attentive as he could be, and the young woman, who wore all the earmarks of a spoiled child, took all his little kindnesses as a matter of course. Between the first and second acts the courteous gallant whispered to his fair one for a moment, and she nodded her head affirmatively. The young man arose and went out of the theater through a door leading to an adjoining candy store. He returned a few minutes later accompanied by a colored boy in white coat and apron, who carried in one hand a tray with a glass of soda water upon it and in the other a napkin. He stood in the aisle while the young man besought his lady to refresh herself with the glass of soda. The eyes of the entire audience were upon them. The young woman sniffed at the glass disdainfully and waved it aside. A facetious youngster in the front row of the gallery ruthlessly fractured the prevailing silence with the suggestion: "Slap 'er on de 'rist, be sassy t'ally. Get 'er some shampy. She don't want none o' yer temp'rance drinks." The young man blushed and sat down and looked miserable during the rest of the play.—Philadelphia Record.

An Old Love Letter.

The following love letter, written by a Kentuckian in his youth, and bearing date in 1823, may be of use to some of our more modern but less effusive and troppo lovers, as an example in erotic epistolary correspondence:

MY DEAR AND ADOORABLE POLLY—As the heavens yield gloomy aspects, making null and void my timid feelings, I sit down to promulgate to you, most holy and immaculate virgin, that I hold a kind of biennial reverence for your most sacred charms, but owing to the intense frigidity of the circumambient atmosphere it has discommodored my respiration like a ship tossed on the tumultuous ocean in sight of the delightful land and then tossed back again. Oh, if there is any tender pity left within that snowy bosom, delay my raging passion, or I shall doubtless pass out of this world in a hurricane of sighs to that sweet elysian which gives dreams of consolation to heal lovesick hearts. Your fond adorer, etc.

It may reduce the percentage of romance to state that the writer died an old bachelor about 20 years ago.

Royal Etiquette.

On one occasion Queen Victoria, Louis Philippe and the Duke of Wellington paid a visit to Eton college. They were invited to sign the visitor's book. The French king thoughtlessly took up the pen and signed his name at the top of the page. Etiquette, however, forbade Queen Victoria to sign her name under any other. She therefore signed on the top of the next page. She then took up the pen and handed it to the Duke of Wellington, who was so excited at the contrecoups that he actually signed his name "Weggington." And, by the way, it may be recorded that etiquette forbids the queen to converse with tradesmen. When a purveyor waits upon her, the queen addresses her remarks to an esquire, who in turn addresses the ex-merchant.—Philadelphia Times.

The Achaean League.

The Achaean league was formed by the 12 towns of Achaea for mutual protection against foreign aggression. It was broken up by Alexander the Great, but reorganized B. C. 280 and again dissolved B. C. 147. The second of these leagues comprised all the leading cities of the Peloponnesus, and, indeed, most of the cities and states of Greece. It was this league which contended with the Romans for the independence of Greece; but, its troops being defeated by Metellus at Scarphaea and by Mummius near Corinth, the league was dissolved, and all Greece submitted to the Roman dominion.

His Razor.

Husband (shaving)—Confound the razor!

Wife—What's the matter now?

You're dreadfully cross tempered.

Gained in Strength.

CADIZ, KY., Dec. 31, 1895.—Two years ago I had the grip, which left me in poor health. Last summer I became so weak that I could hardly walk. My friends advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and I procured a bottle. I began using it and gained in flesh and health and am better than for two years.

SERGENT, KY., Jan. 23.—Reliable information has just reached here from Mallie, near Hindman, Knott county, that that section is terribly terrorized over the appearance of an animal of monstrous size something like a panther. It has been seen at nights by several of the most prominent people of that section and all will testify to the same.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Marriage of Miss Clara Davis to Mr. Arthur Price at the Hill House Last Evening.

The historic Lee House (known to the present age as Hill House) was the scene of splendor and revelry last evening, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Arthur Price to Miss Clara Davis, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis of Market street. For many days decorators, carpenters and artists have been busily engaged transforming the denuded rooms into artistic bowers, salons and chambers commensurate with the sacred and solemn occasion; tapestries, druggets, curtains and lace hangings had covered floors and walls and windows and doors till the interior was one magnificent effect of blue and gold and white, while mantles and fire jams were banked and hung with redolent, beautiful flowers, the green palm and fern vieing with stately exotic for supremacy of position, while modestly peeping from under its leaves, the orchid and rose dividing honors, a profusion of lilies arose from the mound like a towering statue of purity—a symbol of true love most properly placed and acknowledged. In an alcove of ferns, apart from the scene, was stationed an orchestra of seven musicians, who during the entire time discoursed sweetest strains,—voluptuous music, entrancing cords:

"Coursing through every pulse it stole,
Holding sublime communion with the soul,
Wrung from the coyest breast the impassioned sigh,
And kindling rapture from the coldest eye."

Promptly at six o'clock there floats above the assembled guests the measures faint yet sweet and tender, the ever familiar wedding march, to the measured beat of which the bridal party enter.

First came the four ushers, Messrs. David Davis and Albert Whittican, I. L. Isman and Max Lehman, then Mr. Ben Davis, brother of the bride and best man; Mrs. Hamburger, sister of Mrs. Davis, with the groom, Mr. Arthur Price; Mrs. M. Davis, mother of bride, supported by Mr. Price, father of the groom; immediately following these came the four bridesmaids, clad in exquisite white brocade satin, chiffon trimmings, and carrying Holy Bibles with roses between covers. They were Misses Ziegler and Kauffman, Miss Eisman and Miss Maggie Childs. Unattended walked the maid of honor, Miss Clara Price, sister of groom, a distinguished and handsome girl of the most beautiful complexion and bearing. She wore blue crepon, short skirt with bodice of velvet to match, and carried the bride's bouquet of Nipheta roses. Last, the bride upon the arm of her father. She wore a splendid creation of cream Duchess satin, with heavy train. Her bodice was made full in the sleeves, demilength, low neck, showing an exquisite throat and a superb setting for her well-poised head. Over the whole form fell a filmy tulle veil, enveloping her like a fleecy cloud. At the apex of her head and fastening the veil was a magnificent sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. In her hand she carried the Holy Bible, bound in white vellum, the markers of which were strings of lilies of the valley falling to the feet.

Over scattered buds of roses fair, through an aisle of ribboned trellis they approach the erected altar where the man of God awaits his time to speak his delegated office, Rabbi Levi,—Father in God—with holy insignia—robes of ministerial dignity covering his venerated and stately form in ecclesiastical power; the notes of the music diminish until faintly the strains are heard while slowly and sweetly the service begins which shall unite two hearts into one forever; impressively solemn, sacredly sweet, the answers are audibly given, the benediction is asked, the blessing received and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Price receive the hearty good wishes and congratulations of their relatives and friends. After a few minutes thus spent the bridal march is again sounded and forth to the banquet hall they lead the way. Covers had been laid for one hundred guests, and the tables arranged as circling the bridal table, it occupying the center. If flowers and damask with silver and gold can omen good then this happy pair sat amid such a wealth of blessings to enjoy the wedding supper. Caterers, Martin Bros.,

having carte-blanche to regale the hearty appetite, an elegant banquet of ten courses was served, the following being the menu:

Blue Points on Half Shell. Sauternes.
Celery. Olives. Wafers.
Noodle Soup.
Baked Red Snapper, Tomato Sauce.
Potatoes.

Immediately following coffee the toastmaster, Mr. Max Lehman, of Portsmouth, Ohio, arose and in a delightfully happy manner gave the several toasts, which are silver guide posts along the way of Jewish marriage rites. When the feast of reason had been enjoyed and every expression of love showered upon the contracting parties, the ball room was sought and until the "wee sma' hours," the merry company danced. At 10:45 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Price took the train for an extended Eastern tour, after which they will be at home, Baltimore, Md.

The list of presents received by the bride was a long one, covering every article of household need from pantry to parlor,—a most beautiful and visible show of affection and esteem. They were displayed in a large room at the bride's home. The BULLETIN joins in the many expressions of hearty good wishing, and in conclusion will express itself thus: Perpetual harmony their life attend
And Venus still the well matched pair befriend.
May she, when time has sunk him into years
Love her old man, and cherish his white hairs;
Nor he perceive her charms thro' age decay
But think each happy sun his bridal day.

The following strangers were in our city in attendance upon the wedding, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis, of Market street:

Mr. S. Hamburger, of Cumberland, Md., sister of Mrs. M. Davis, whom she had not seen for four years.
Mr. Ben Davis, brother of the bride.
Mr. and Mrs. Ike Levi, the latter a sister of the bride.
Mr. Charles Price, father of the groom, Lonesome, Md.
Miss Clara Price, sister of the groom.

DR. JOHN A. MITCHELL.

Death Claims a Former Well Known Dentist of This City—Passed Away Wednesday.

Dr. John A. Mitchell, who had been at death's door for several days, passed away Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Vawter, of Springdale, of general debility.

Dr. Mitchell was at one time a well known and successful dentist of this city, but he had not practiced his profession for several years, and had made his home at Springdale for some time. His wife survives him and he leaves five children, all of whom live in Louisville, except Edgar and Andrew, who are in business at Bessemer, Ala.

The remains will be interred in the Maysville Cemetery at 2 o'clock this afternoon, standard time. Funeral services at the grave by Rev. D. D. Chapin.

"Let parents not live for their children, but with them." The mother should allow no false modesty to stand in the way of her daughter's knowledge of herself, of her possibilities, of her perils. For over thirty years Dr. Pierce has used his "Favorite Prescription" as a strengthener, purifier, a regulator. It works directly upon the delicate, distinctly feminine organs, in a natural, soothing way. It searches out the weak spots and builds them up. A woman who would understand herself should send 21 cents to the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., for Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, a book of 1008 pages.

THE MARSH-CALDWELL NUPTIALS.

A Former Maysville Physician Weds One of Boyle County's Most Estimable Young Ladies.

[Danville Advocate.]

Dr. Henry M. Marsh and Miss Maria Caldwell were married at the Methodist Church Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock. It was necessary to raise all of the partitions in the large auditorium, in order to accommodate the many friends and acquaintances who came to witness the ceremony.

The bridal party, with the exception of the groom and his best man, entered the church from the main entrance, the ushers first down the middle aisle, followed by the attendants, with the bride in the rear of the procession, upon the arm of her sister, Miss Lucille Caldwell. The groom, upon the arm of his friend, Mr. Ed. Ball, of Muncie, Ind., entered from the choir door, and met the bride in the center of the rostrum, the attendants and ushers being tastefully stationed in a semi-circle about them. Dr. E. H. Pearce, of Winchester, facing the audience, pronounced the couple man and wife, according to the Methodist ritual.

The attendants not already mentioned were, Miss Mary Anderson, of Mt. Sterling; Miss Alice Ramsey, of Winchester; Miss Maggie Caldwell; Messrs. John Caldwell, Robert G. Evans and John McRoberts. The ushers, Professor S. R. Cheek, Messrs. Guy Wiseman, John Roberts and Collins Sumrall.

The bride wore a becoming brown traveling costume, and the bridesmaids were attired in street dresses. It was a very pretty wedding. Mr. John Ziegler rendered the wedding march in charming style.

Dr. Marsh has been a citizen of Danville for a number of years and is well-known to the people of the community. He stands high professionally and socially, and his friends wish him a continuation of the good fortune which has smiled upon him in the selection of a bride. His wife is a daughter of Judge W. Logan Caldwell and a young woman of many lovable traits of character.

Dr. Marsh and wife, after a visit to relatives in Maysville, will be at home with Mrs. Ella Palmer, (sister of the bride), in Danville, February 1st.

The presents were numerous and very handsome.

After the ceremony, the bridal party, with a few relatives and friends, drove to the home of Mrs. Palmer, where luncheon was served. The couple left on the 1:55 train for Cincinnati.

A number of telegrams of congratulations were received from friends at a distance.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Postoffice and Store Burned.

The postoffice at Murphysville and store of Sherman Tomlin were destroyed by fire at 11 o'clock last night, together with contents. The insurance amounts to $1,600 which will probably cover the loss. It is thought a defective flue caused the fire.

Mardi-Gras.

For the above occasion, the C. and O. will sell round-trip tickets Maysville to New Orleans and Mobile at one fare, $21.90 and $20.65. Tickets on sale February 14th to 17th, inclusive. Fifteen days limit.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY

and everyone needs it at all times of the year. Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the Liver active. You must help the Liver a bit, and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the RED Z.

Mr. C. Himrod, of Lancaster, Ohio, says: "SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR broke a case of Malarial Fever of three years' standing for me, and less than one bottle did the business. I shall use it when in need, and recommend it."

Be sure that you get it. Always look for the RED Z on the package. And don't forget the word REGULATOR. It is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, and there is only one, and every one who takes it is sure to be benefited. THE BENEFIT IS ALL IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for Biliousness and Sick Headache; both are caused by a sluggish Liver.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

BEATRICE BEREFT.

Prince Henry of Battenberg Dies of Fever in South Africa.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Prince Henry of Battenberg, who was taken ill while accompanying the British expedition against the Ashantees, died of coast fever on his return voyage from Cape Coast Castle to Sierra Leone.

He died on the night of Jan. 20 on board the British cruiser Blonde. It had been his intention to recruit his health at Madeira.

After Prince Henry died the cruiser Blonde put into Sierra Leone and the news of his death was immediately cabled to the queen and Princess Beatrice at Osborne, and also to the admiralty and the war offices.

Prince Henry was the third son of Prince Alexander of Battenberg, uncle of Ludwig IV, Grand Duke of Hesse. He married the Princess Beatrice, the youngest daughter of Queen Victoria, in 1855. They have four children. He was born Oct. 5, 1858, and was governor of the Isle of Wight and of Carisbrooke castle.

The first lord of the admiralty, the Hon. George J. Goschen, after consulting with the queen, has given instructions that the Blonde be ordered to bring the remains of the prince to England.

The greatest sorrow is manifested throughout the Isle of Wight at the death of Prince Henry, and the flags everywhere are at half mast.

The review of the flying squadron now off Spit Head has again been postponed. The reason given is that the weather is too foggy for her majesty to be able to witness the review from the Osborne house. But it is reported that the real cause of the postponement is the death of Prince Henry of Battenberg.

EVERYTHING DENIED.

No Truth in Several Sensational Reports From South America.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—At the Brazilian legation it was said that nothing was known regarding the report from Rio Janeiro that a Brazilian corvette had sailed for Trinidad to take possession of that island, which is in dispute between Great Britain and Brazil.

Regarding the report that the Republic of Argentina is about to reopen and press a claim of long standing to the ownership of the Falkland Islands, in view of the stand taken by President Cleveland on the Venezuelan boundary dispute, Senor Dominguez, the charge d'affairs at the Argentine legation here, said he had received no information from his government on the subject. The report that Argentina would send a specially accredited minister to the United States to urge the matter has probably grown out of the fact that Argentina at present has no fully accredited representative in this country, but that one was soon to be appointed in the ordinary channels of diplomacy.

The Chilean legation has received the following cablegram from the Chilean minister of foreign affairs: "Relations with Argentine Republic perfectly cordial." This is regarded as finally disposing of the reports coming via Lima, Peru, to the effect that relations between the two countries were severely strained owing to the boundary dispute, which has been pending several years, but concerning which, it is stated at the Chilean legation here, negotiations are now progressing satisfactorily.

DULUTH, Jan. 23.—The daughter of Chief Kwa-Kum-Ic, head of all the Chippewa Indians near Tower, committed suicide by shooting herself with a rifle. The squaw, who was about 35 years old, was sick at the time and chose the rifle in preference to the medicine man as a means of stopping the pain. Only a few months ago an ore train killed one of Kwa-Kum-Ic's sons.

GETTING RAMS READY.

The Katahdin Will Require but Three Weeks' Overhauling.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Orders have reached the navy yard to the effect that the ram Katahdin must be ready to go into commission on or before Feb. 12. The officers at the yard have had their men at work putting the interior of the coast defenser in shape, and say they will have no difficulty in getting the vessel ready before the date fixed.

A draft of 25 men has been ordered to go from the receiving ship Vermont to the ram on Saturday and these men will be used in getting the ship ready for her general acceptance by the naval authorities.

The work on the monitor Terror has also been pushed during the past few weeks. It is believed that she will be ready to go into commission, if necessary, within the next two months.

TRIED TO THAW DYNAMITE.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—Lawrence Moist, a laborer, tried to thaw a stick of dynamite at a fire at Bixler's station, near Newport yesterday. Seven kegs of rock powder were nearby which were being used in the work of straightening the road bed of the main line of the Pennsylvania. The dynamite exploded the powder ignited and Moist was instantly killed. Six other laborers were badly injured and some may die.

CITY MARSHAL SHOT AND KILLED.

WEIMAR, Tex., Jan. 23.—City Marshal Hatch York was shot and instantly killed at 8 o'clock last night by a negro named Jim Harris. The wildest excitement prevails and the citizens are scouring the country for the murderer, who, if captured, will surely be lynched. There was a companion with Harris who is now in jail. Strong talk of lynching him prevails.

IT WAS NOT A MURDER.

MAMORONECK, N. Y., Jan. 23.—An autopsy was held on the body of Miss Mary E. Hills, who was found dead in her home at Bonnybrook farm, this county. The autopsy shows that the woman had died of starvation, and not at the hands of a murderer as has all along been thought. It is believed by those who made the investigation that the woman had fallen down stairs very shortly before she died.

TWO MEN KILLED IN A TUNNEL.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23.—Two men, supposed to be John L. Berridge and W. Koenig, residents of this city, were instantly killed yesterday in the Wabash railroad tunnel near King's Highway. The men were looking for employment and were crossing the track through the tunnel when a passenger train struck them and tore their bodies to pieces.

WAREHOUSES BURNED.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—Fire yesterday destroyed the warehouses of Steel Brothers, McIntosh & Company and Park, Blackwell & Company. The loss will reach about $60,000; partly insured. SI THOUSAND MEN HAPPY.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Jan. 23.—The collieries of the Delaware and Hudson Coal company will work full time until further notice. Six thousand men are affected.

INDIANA BANKER DIES IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Jacob Wile of LaPorte, Ind., died in this city last night, aged 67 years. He was widely known in banking and insurance circles.

OLD RESERVE STILL LOSING.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The treasury yesterday lost $142,000 in gold coin and $39,000 in bars, leaving the reserve at the close of business $50,593,487.

AN ILLUSTRIOUS PUPIL.

It was in 1859, when he was ambassador at St. Petersburg, that Prince Bismarck studied Russian. The suspicious ex-chancellor, who once declared that blotting paper was "an invention of the enemy," wished to dispense with interpreters. He engaged a young law student to give him lessons. M. Alexeoff has lately furnished some particulars of his former pupil.

The pronunciation of certain syllables was a great difficulty, and Bismarck got out of temper more than once, but he finally mastered the language well enough for his purpose, and then disputed the remuneration which had been agreed upon.

Bismarck carefully kept his knowledge of Russian a secret from the court, with the result that he occasionally gleaned information not intended for him, but on one occasion the czar, who was talking in Russian to Prince Gortchakov, noticed that the ambassador was looking very fixedly at him, and at once guessed the truth. He asked Bismarck, point blank, if he understood Russian, and the "man of blood and iron" confessed, much annoyed at having been found out.—Parson's Weekly.

HOW SHE GOT THE NEWS.

Two Louisville women who are "great friends," as the phrase goes, from one cause or another had not met for several weeks, though living only a few squares apart. The other night one dame went down to visit the other one and said on entering the house:

"Margaret, I came down to visit you because I heard you were sick."

"Well," answered Margaret, who seemed a trifle out of sorts, "you took your time about it. I have been sick a week."

"Yes," Deborah replied, "but I could not come sooner because you took such a roundabout way of letting me know you were sick."

"Roundabout way? I don't remember sending you any word at all. How did you hear?"

"Well, you wrote the news to your daughter Alice in Milwaukee; she wrote to my daughter Mary in New Orleans; Mary mentioned it when she wrote to me—and that is how I happened to come over."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

ARTIFICIAL SCENTING OF FLOWERS.

Flowers that have lost something of their perfume are now scented artificially by water them with an alcoholic solution of essence, using a little glycerin to fix the odor. Thus, for violets, the liquid is composed of 100 grams of glycerin and 10 grams of essence of violet. In many places, while scented violets are comparatively rare, the unscented kinds grow wild in great profusion. These are now bought up in large quantities, scented artificially and put into the market in advantageous competition with the perfumed violets grown by the horticulturists. Cut flowers which have wilted from time or transportation are revived by being plunged into a weak solution of sal ammoniac. Flowers which have little or no scent are also perfumed for sale by being put into a box with ice and then saturated with a current of carbonic acid charged with perfume.—London Public Opinion.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The British steamer Europa, from Las Palmas Dec. 26, for New Orleans, was spoken on Jan. 2 in Lat. 25 north; Long. 41 west, with her main shaft broken. She was then drifting toward the West Indies. She had to be taken in tow, but the desired assistance could not be given her. She was supplied with bread and flour, however.

PARIS, Jan. 23.—A fire in the Hotchkiss rapid fire gun manufactory at St. Denis has caused damage to the extent of 1,000,000 francs.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

GLADNESS COMES

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed.

If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

REGINA,

The Queen of Music Boxes.

A BEAUTIFUL HOLIDAY PRESENT

Plays thousands of tunes on a steel comb, and a large number of various Swiss Music Box made in quality of tone. The tune sheets are indestructible, being made of metal, and the mechanism is so strong and heavy that it cannot get out of order.

And as they handle in the same proportion.

Don't overlook the fact that my Blended Coffee is the best and that my Perfection Flour has no equal for Bread or Cakes—manufactured for and sold exclusively by me; no other genuine. My house is always headquarters for everything good to eat. Come in everybody, whether you want to buy or not. You are always welcome. Goods delivered to all parts of the city.
